This is the selected bibliography which Dr. Williams included at the end of his booklet. Due to space limitations in the September/October 2007 Does God Exist? bulletin, we omitted the bibliography from the article in the printed bulletin. We are making this bibliography available to anyone who would like to have it for further study.

The following section contains works which argue for the uniqueness of Christ as distinct from other founders of world religions or various gods of world religions. Some focus on similarities and differences between Christianity and other world religions and possible relationships which can exist between adherents. Some works focus on how a Christian can best share the gospel with people of non-Christian faiths.
